INTRO: Hold me CLOSER I'm falling in love.

1. Sometimes the song of love has a sad refrain,
born of innocence, to end in heartbreak.
As this new love grows, it's strength is time.
Time to overcome and leave the past behind.

CHORUS: Hold me CLOSER I'm falling in love.
Hold me nearer you're all I'm thinking of.
The song that's in my heart,
is telling me it's time to start,
with you.

CHORUS: Hold me CLOSER I'm falling in love.
Hold me nearer you're all I'm thinking of.
The song that's in my heart,
is telling me it's time to start,
time to start,
with you.

INSTRUMENTAL:

BRIDGE: When two hearts touch and they beat as one,
one love grows where two were on their own.
