

MY DEAREST MARYANNE

© SOCAN Glenn Zaretski

INTRO:

1. MY DEAREST MARYANNE I long for your arrival,
Try though I will I cannot still this uneasy heart.
In such a savage land all thoughts are on survival.
Still, begging God's grace these fears that I face won't keep us a-part.

CHORUS: I long, oh for the sight of you. Your hair awash upon your face.
I dream of you both night & day.
As always I remain your faithful true & loving Paul.

INSTRUMENTAL:

2. The Ghost and The Darkness have come down to haunt us.
They say they're the spirits of men, whose evil condemned them to walk on this earth once a-gain.
(as verse 2)
3. But not for forgiveness and not for contrition they tear at our flesh and our pain.
Hunting for pleasure these beasts unfulfilled by their gain.
4. I will not fear them. I will not run.
I will not hide from the devil's deeds they have done.
I will not rest 'til I free both them and I.
And their bones lay bleached by the burning sun neath an unforgiving sky.
5. MY DEAREST MARYANNE. In such a savage land all thoughts are on survival.
Still begging God's grace these fears that I face won't keep us a-part.

CHORUS: I long, oh for the sight of you.
As always I remain your faithful true and loving Paul.
